

A large, creamy scoop of light-colored ice cream, likely vanilla or lemon, is the central focus. It is studded with dark chocolate shavings and small, dark, irregular pieces, possibly hazelnuts or chocolate chips. The ice cream is served in a white paper cup with a blue and green landscape design. The cup is covered in condensation droplets. A blue cloud-shaped graphic with a white border is positioned above the ice cream, containing the word 'Mozart' in a bold, dark blue, italicized font. The background is plain white.
